ORAL JUDGEMENT

(Per : MR.JUSTICE M.S.SHAH)

In this reference at the instance of the revenue, the following question is referred to us in respect of

Assessment Year 1993-94 :-

"Whether the Appellate Tribunal is right in law and on facts in setting aside the order made by the Income-tax Officer cancelling the registration under section 186 of the Act, on the ground that one of the partners was a partner in dual capacity ?"

2. We have heard Mr BB Naik, learned counsel for the revenue and Mr SN Soparkar, learned counsel for the assessee. The learned counsel agree that the controversy raised herein is concluded by the decision of the Apex Court in CIT vs. Kandath Motors, (1997) 224 ITR 663 wherein the Apex Court has held that a person can be a partner in a partnership firm in his individual capacity and again in another capacity. In the facts of that case, the concerned assessee was a partner in his individual capacity and also as representing the three heirs of a deceased partner. The said assessee had signed partnership agreement in his individual capacity as well as representing heirs of the deceased. The Apex Court has held that there was nothing in the Indian Partnership Act, 1932 or the Indian Contract Act, 1872 which prevented the agreement of this nature and that the validity of the partnership could not be doubted when there were other partners as well. The Apex Court has also held that if the legal representative of the deceased is also one of the surviving partners, he can agree to join the new partnership as a nominee of the legal heirs of the deceased partner.

3. In view of the above decision, we hold that the Appellate Tribunal was right in setting aside the order made by the Income-tax Officer cancelling the registration under Section 186 of the Act on the ground that one of the partners was a partner in dual capacity. We accordingly answer the question in the affirmative i.e. in favour of the assessee and against the revenue.

The reference accordingly stands disposed of with no order as to costs.
